

2017 Summer Program

Francis Parker School Middle School Enrichment/Language Immersion Summer Program

San Diego, California, USA

Ages 11-15

FRANCIS PARKER SCHOOL

Founded in 1912, Francis Parker School is a nationally-recognized independent/private day school. For 105 years, the School has offered a balanced, challenging and integrated educational program in academics, the performing and visual arts, and athletics.

WHY SAN DIEGO?

Regarded often as “America’s Finest City” and considered one of the safest cities in which to live, San Diego is an ideal place to study in America. As California’s 2nd largest city (only behind Los Angeles), San Diego is acknowledged widely as offering a relaxed pace of life enjoyed by a family-friendly population. San Diego residents are accommodating and eager to support international students who wish to make the most of an American educational experience, regardless of length. Experience a city that offers cultural diversity, endless golden beaches, famous museums, and a variety of recreational activities.
